His chili rellenos are pasilla peppers stuffed with cheese, covered in fluffy egg batter, fried and smothered in red sauce. Rice and beans are served on the side. There are numerous omelets on the menu. Imagine what toppings you like, and Tortilla Flat's Super Omelet, with ham, sausage, bacon, onion, mushrooms and jack cheese. The fajita omelet is also popular, and filled with your choice of beef or chicken, onions, bell peppers, cheese, sour cream, salsa and guacamole. Breakfast burritos are $6.95 and come with your choice of chorizo, a la Mexicana, ham, bacon, sausage or Machacha. If you like a more decadent breakfast, treat yourself to cheese blintzes, waffled with whipped cream and fruit, apple cinnamon hot cakes and more. You won't go wrong with tacos and burritos, but especially the super taco. It is served open-faced on a plate. It is filled with flavorful fresh beans, melted Jack cheese, steak or grilled chicken, sour cream, guacamole and pico de gallo. There are lots of dinner specials to choose from, some that are traditional and others that are Gonzalez's creations. There are enchiladas served in a variety of ways with different sauces. The Potrillo platter includes New York strip steak topped with cactus sautéed in a special homemade sauce served with rice and beans.
